Art for the Table

Originally founded in 1933, Pimpernel was the very first manufacturer of rigid placemats & coasters and since its conception. the brand established itself as the leading supplier of high quality tabletop accessories offering unparalleled choice and superior quality to an ever demanding and trend concious consumer.

Pimpernel's quality placemats and coasters use a 5mm board which is topped with a unique art print and is totally sealed with a high quality lacquer finish, that is both stain and heat resistant to 212°F. The whole placemat is finished with a hardwearing cork back to protect precious furniture.
