HALCYON DAYS

Strengthening bonds beautifully for over 70 years

Quintessentially English

Halcyon Days 1950 – the guardian of two of the oldest English crafts - enamelling onto copper and the handmaking of fine bone china.
A business of tradition in the best sense of that word: skilled craftsmen and master artists using skills and techniques passed down through generations. Handmade in the heart of England.

Products you will fall in love with

The 2020 edition of the Annual Year Box is inspired by designs found within the Halcyon Days archive. A soft, pastel green serves as the background for the intricate gold detailing combined with clusters of flowers. The colour palette of the box evokes details of the ceilings created by famed 18th century English architect, Robert Adam.

The much-admired coffered ceiling of the Chapel Royal, St James's Palace inspired this stunning, 2020 Easter Egg. Commissioned by Henry VIII, Hans Holbein decorated the ceiling in honour of the King's fourth marriage to Anne of Cleves. True to Holbein's reputation as one of the greatest portraitists of the 16th Century, the ceiling is a spectacular Tudor masterpiece.

The Chapel Royal Livery Collection

Inspired by the scarlet and gold livery worn by the 17th century choristers of the Chapel Royal, this collection is wonderfully opulent.

The Children of the Chapel Royal Collection

The Children of the Chapel Royal crossing St. James's Park, Westminster. A watercolour c.1790 by an unknown artist.

Choristers known as 'The Children of the Chapel Royal' gather in an Autumnal scene in St. James's Park, Westminster, wearing the Chapel livery in accordance with King Charles II's warrant of 1661.

The Chapel Royal is the ancient foundation of Priests, choristers and Vestrymen appointed to serve the Sovereign.

Plays Zadok the Priest

H: 95mm W: 82mm H:50mm

Inspired by the decorative ceiling of the Chapel Royal, St. James's Palace, the ceiling is host to a wealth of history. Hans Holbein was commissioned by Henry VIII to decorate the chapel and details of the ceiling were copied from the ambulatory vault of S. Costanza, Rome, with the illustrative painting attributed to Italian craftsmen, commemorating the marriage of Henry VIII & Anne of Cleves.

To mark the 50th anniversary of the Investiture of His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales on 1st July 1919, Halcyon Days has created a limited edition enamel box in a regal shade of navy blue. The Prince of Wales's Feathers are featured in the centre of the lid, framed by an elegant golden trellis. Once opened, the inscription on the inner lid reads, "To commemorate the 50th Anniversary of the Investiture of His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, 1st July 1919," serving as a reminder of the day when His Royal Highness Prince Charles was officially crowned His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales.

Constructed in the 13th century, Notre-Dame's magnificent stained glass Rose Window allows divine light to pour into the cathedral from above in the form of soft, jewel-like tones. In the centre oculus of the north Rose Window is the image of Mary enthroned holding the Christ Child. Surrounding them are images of kings and prophets of the Old Testament. On 15 April, 2019 a disastrous fire ravaged the cathedral. Miraculously, the Rose Window remains intact, evoking a beautiful story of resilience and triumph.

Tradition is at the heart of everything that Halcyon Days does. As guardians of enamelling, and experts in the creation of fine bone china, our team of highly skilled craftsmen and master artists employ refined techniques that have been handed down for generations.

Castle of Mey

The Castle and Gardens of Mey was the beloved private home of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth. This beautifully restored castle and gardens situated in Caithness on the North coast of Scotland is where The Queen Mother spent many happy summers. This collection was inspired by the Castle and its glorious surroundings.

Antler Trellis Midnight Gold Finish

Made from English fine bone china in our factory in Stoke-on-Trent, these exquisite designs have been hand gilded for an opulent finish.

The classic Antler Trellis design has been created in collaboration with Gordon Castle and is inspired by the antler heads which used to adorn the domed ceiling in the castle. In beautiful midnight tone, these pieces are the perfect home accessory.

Available in both cream and black, Halcyon Days' in-house design team drew inspiration from an assortment of antique tools representative of QEST's dedication to supporting individuals who strive to keep traditional craft alive. The QEST logo features just below the gilded rim of the mug, as well on the base stamp. A portion of the proceeds from sales will be donated to QEST to support the education and training of talented and aspiring craftspeople.

"Sir Winston Churchill"
Douglas Granville Chisholm
(1897-1953)

To commemorate the 100th anniversary of the Royal Air Force, 1st April 1918.

Sir Winston Churchill was an Honorary Air Commodore of the RAF.
He captured the bravery of RAF pilots
in his 1940 speech:

"Never in the history of human conflict was so much owed by so many to so few"
